Key Points:

Eligibility: Holders of valid residence permits from GCC countries, including the UAE, can enter Georgia without a visa.
Duration of Stay: You can stay in Georgia for up to 90 days within any 180-day period.

- These travelers can enter Georgia visa-free, only if they hold a multiple-entry visa or residence permit from a GCC country (UAE, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Oman, Kuwait, Bahrain) valid for at least one full year at the time of entry.
- The updated rule came into force May 16, 2025, tightening previous regulations that did not specify a minimum validity period.
- Georgia's Ministry of Internal Affairs stressed this change was not a loosening, but a tightening of entry conditions.

Entry Conditions: While visa-free entry is permitted, the final decision to grant entry rests with Georgian immigration authorities upon arrival. They may request the documents listed above, so it's prudent to have them readily available.

Additional Considerations: Ensure that your GCC residence permit is valid on both the day of entry into and departure from Georgia.
